Study Based on Bluey - For All Ages!

Sundays in September at 10:15am

Everyone loves the animated show Bluey! We love the playful, creative characters and their fun family interactions. According to "The Daily Free Press" of Boston University, "What makes "Bluey" powerful is its essential message about family. One of the most consistent aspects of the show is how it displays true love between friends and family."

Join us in Heimer Hall for this study for everyone - kids and adults. We will watch a Bluey episode, then discuss it together.

Sunday, September 29

Combined Worship Service at 10am

We'll all join together for Worship!

Legacy Giving for Family & Ministry Presentation at 11:15am

Following the service, we have an opportunity to attend a Legacy Giving for Family and Ministry presentation in the Fellowship Hall. Come learn how individual congregation members can make a major impact on Triumphant Lutheran Church's future and that of other Lutheran ministries. Deacon John Dellis with Lutheran Foundation of the Southwest will share ideas and information.

Consider the benefits of estate and legacy plans that provide forethought and maximize funds that will be shared with family members and the ministries of the church.
